

Leadership Frisco Class 21 2017-2018

Application Instructions

To assist the Selection Committee in giving you full consideration, please complete this application as accurately and completely as possible.

The Advisory Council reserves the right to limit the class as determined by the LFAC. All applicants must:

- Be eighteen (18) years of age or older and have lived in Frisco and/or Frisco ISD and/or worked in Frisco for at least one year prior to June 9, 2017.
- Have expressed a desire to become active leaders in the community.
- Possess high standards of personal quality and integrity.
- Be willing to commit the time required for the program and volunteer hours.
- If employed, have the endorsement of their employers.

Selection Process:

In its selection process, the Leadership Frisco Advisory Council will strive to obtain a representative balance of participants from ethnic, minority and cultural aspects of Frisco, as well as representatives from businesses, educational institutions, professional, civic organizations, and the government of Frisco. This means that many highly qualified applicants may not be immediately placed. We encourage you to reapply should you not be selected this year. The Selection Committee considers sustained interest in making their selections. Spouses may not apply for the same year's class. Applicants may be called by a member of the Selection Committee for a phone interview, and will be asked to participate in an evening meet and greet event with the Leadership Frisco Advisory Council and Selection Committee.

Structure of the Class:

One Friday each month beginning in September and ending in May, participants meet for approximately eight (8) hours. The inaugural mandatory opening sessions of Leadership Dynamics and retreat Friday, September 8th (afternoon and evening) and Saturday, September 9th (all day) includes a "Challenge by Choice Ropes Course". Other subjects covered are local government, education, criminal justice, social services, health services, regional issues, economic development, leisure and culture and team building /leadership skills. The sessions include hands-on experience, presentations and site visits, directed by civic leaders and specialists, who are experts in their fields. In addition to monthly class days, attendance at various city and school meetings will be required, as well as a class project. Development of the class project will be done outside of regular class days. It is essential that participants commit to these attendance requirements, and will be asked to sign an Attendance Addendum acknowledging they understand these requirements.

Leadership Frisco
