

Tyler Clutts

Tyler Clutts was born and raised in California where he was 1 of 5 children. Tyler participated in every sport he could until he narrowed his focus in high school to football and wrestling. As a football player, he received All-State honors as Utility Player of the year playing both Quarterback and Linebacker. In his senior year, Tyler was a state champion wrestler both individually and as a team.

Tyler received a full ride scholarship Fresno State university where he was a four-year starter at Defensive End and linebacker. After college, instead of advancing to the NFL, Tyler went north to play in the Canadian Football league which began his three and a half year journey to his childhood dream of playing in the NFL. After playing in the CFL, AFL, and UFL, Tyler finally completed his journey and debuted in 2011 as the starting fullback for the Chicago Bears. Tyler played 6 seasons in the NFL for multiple teams, the last 3 were for the Dallas Cowboys.

Immediately following his football career, Tyler jumped head first into commercial real estate. He works exclusively with companies to identify and create real estate solutions that encourage growth, culture and productivity.

Tyler and his wife Tiffany have 4 beautiful children Giada (7) and Luca (4) twins Rocco and Ciana (2). His family permanently moved from California to raise their children in Frisco, the best city in the country.
